April Edition

Corvid19 - Easter - Spring

April has arrived and we are in a different time where we have to look out for each other and be isolated, work from home and more.

Although some Easter traditions have been ruled out this year, we still hope that you have enjoyed painting eggs and the sun every now and then.

Please enjoy this month's jam-packed newsletter with product updates, readings and future goals.

Staying safe and working for you: We want to acknowledge that this is a difficult time but we will continue to put you, our customers, at the center of everything we do.

Penneo Updates

We have built a new SUPPORT experience from the ground up and we are quietly opening the doors.

The next step is for us to bring you along.

You get a lot of new benefits and easy information provided by Penneo, so you can get even more control over your workflows and digital signatures.

We have created a Troubleshooting section, added 39 articles and updated many

So sit back and enjoy it! Of course, you will use your Penneo account as you normally should, but should problems arise then we have your back with our easily explained articles🔗

In addition, we would also encourage you to skim some of the topics so you can get an idea of where things are located should you ever need them: Themes such as:

- ✓ Error code 404
- ✓ Signature will not be registered
- ✓ Your eID is already associated with another Penneo account
- ... and much more

We are happy to have you on our journey!
